«Informative and up to date since more than 30 years! Do you also have Visions?»

Content and Readership

History

The association of computer science students at ETH Zurich (VIS) has been publishing the official newsletter «Visionen» since its founding in 1984. The first issue appeared on May 18th, 1984. Ever since, the magazine has continuously evolved and enhanced. Today, «Visionen» presents itself as an informative journal that strives to be more than just a club newspaper.

Production

«Visionen» is being produced by a team of committed volunteer students. Among the contributors are students, assistants, lecturers and industry insiders. Articles are written in German or English.

Content

«Visionen» covers a broad range of topics:

→Communication of study-related topics in collaboration with the department of computer science, such as introduction of new professors or announcements regarding courses.

→Specialized articles about various branches of computer science: Current research projects, legal and social issues as well as technical articles.

→Humorous and informative pieces about student culture and events.

Distribution

Circulation:

→Total circulation: 2'200 copies.

→As of WEMF (2015): 2'175 copies.

Readership:

→Computer science students at ETH Zurich

→Ph.D. students of the department of computer science at ETH Zurich

→Professors of the department of computer science at ETH Zurich

→ETH Alumni

→Interested companies

Distributed postally to all students of computer science and subscribers. The students receive the magazine automatically and free of charge as long as they are enrolled at the department of computer science. The remaining issues are spread in the buildings of the department and other important buildings of ETH.

Release cycle: 6 issues per year (3 per semester)

Subscription costs: CHF 25.-

Terms and Conditions

Last updated: 18.10.2016

THE GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF VISIONEN ARE NOT LEGALLY BINDING EXCEPT FOR THE GERMAN VERSION. THIS TEXT HAS BEEN TRANSLATED AND MAY CONTAIN FAULTS BOTH IN CONTENT AND LANGUAGE.

The contract between the Visionen (hereinafter “publisher”) and the party placing the order for the advertisement (hereinafter “advertiser”) shall be concluded through a written confirmation by the publisher.

1. A contract that is compulsory for both parties comes into existence only after an approving confirmation by the publisher. Any advertisement mandate is subject to these terms and conditions, which the advertiser will be made aware of in a suitable way. The following sets out the standard terms and conditions for advertising in “Visionen”, unless not differently agreed upon beforehand. The publisher shall not be liable for any printing errors contained in this material.

2. The positioning of the advertisement is left to the publisher, unless differently acknowledged beforehand in a written agreement.

3. The advertiser is responsible for the content of his advertisement. The publisher may, without any responsibility to the advertiser, reject, cancel or require any advertisement to be amended that it considers unsuitable or contrary to these terms and remove, not print or suspend any such advertisement.

4. The advertiser is responsible for delivering a faultless advertisement template in time (the relevant deadlines for delivering in time are stated on page 2). The advertiser will be charged 100% of the agreed rate, even if he does not manage to deliver the template in time.

5. The release dates stated on page 2 are only approximated benchmarks. The effective release dates may deviate from those. The publisher is aiming to meet these benchmarks. Without further written agreement, the publisher cannot be made responsible for any late release in the tolerance of +/- 10 working days and the advertiser is bound to pay the advertisement.

6. The advertiser will be granted a charge mitigation or a reprint of their advertisement in the next issue in case that the advertisement is partly or entirely unreadable or incorrectly or incompletely printed, but only in the degree in which the purpose of the advertisement was impaired. Any further liabilities against the publisher are barred. Complaints must be invoked within 2 weeks after receipt of the invoice and voucher.

7. Templates and data storage devices will be returned to the advertiser only upon explicit request. The publisher is responsible that the template is only used for its intended purpose and is not made accessible to unauthorized third parties.

8. A “good for print” of the advertisement will only be sent to the advertiser upon explicit request. The publisher needs to be made aware of any possible corrections within 24 hours after receipt of the “good for print”. The absence of response within the period mentioned will be taken as approval.

9. In case of force majeure, the publisher’s obligation for implementation of mandates and payment of compensation shall cease. In particular will the publisher not pay any compensation for unpublished or untimely published advertisements.

10. The mediation of advertisements for “Visionen” shall be permitted. Additional costs (like commission of the mediating company) have to be added to the prices on page 2. The price on page 2 however, has to be communicated transparently to the end customer.

11. Any agreements between publisher and advertiser deviating from these terms and conditions need to be communicated in written form.

12. In case any of the above mentioned regulations (or part thereof) is invalid or void, so shall this not affect the validity of the other regulations.

13. These terms and conditions (and any non-contractual obligations arising in connection with them) shall be governed by Swiss law and the courts at the domicile of the publisher will have exclusive jurisdiction in relation to these terms and conditions (and any non-contractual obligations arising in connection with them).
